Congressman Kelly and CODEL Makes Brief Stop in American Samoa

[PICTORIAL]: On August 12, 2023, the Congressional delegation (CODEL) led by Honorable Congressman John Trent Kelly arrived in American Samoa at 6:45 a.m. for a short fuel stop. On official business, the CODEL departed Australia and had a very short layover in American Samoa before proceeding to Hawaii.

The CODEL included Honorable Congressman Rob Wittman, Honorable Congressman Scott DesJarlais, Honorable Congressman Ronny Jackson, Honorable Congressman Robert B.

Aderholt, Honorable Congressman Vicente Gonzalez, and Honorable Congresswoman Claudia Tenney. Other members of the delegation include staff members of respective representatives and their families.

Congressman Kelly and the rest of the delegation expressed their appreciation to the American Samoa team for their generosity. They also conveyed gratitude to Honorable Congresswoman Aumua Amata Radewagen, Honorable Governor Lemanu P. S Mauga, and Honorable Acting Governor Talauega E. V. Ale for their contributions in extending a warm welcome.

The delegation left shortly after refueling for one hour.
