cultural traditions of the Chaminade community, with special performances from the students of Samoa, Philippines, Hawai'i and the Mariana islands.

The event featured an array of dynamic performances, showcasing traditional dances, music, and attire, which provided attendees with an engaging glimpse into the cultural heritage of each community represented. "This gathering was a fantastic opportunity for our staff to connect with and appreciate the wider Pacific cultures, and more so, to support our Samoan students in sharing our culture with the world," said Cherine Tilo from the American Samoa Governor's office-Hawaii.

The event was not only a celebration but also an educational experience that highlighted the importance of cultural diversity and inclusion. "Events like the International Extravaganza play a critical role in fostering mutual understanding and respect among different communities. We are proud to be a part of such a significant event," Tilo added.

The Governor's office extends its gratitude to the Chaminade Student Government Association and all participants and organizers of the International Extravaganza for a successful and memorable event.
