Official Statement from the Honorable Governor Statement of Appreciation

On behalf of the Honorable Lieutenant Governor Pulumataala Ae Ae Jr., the American Samoa Government, and the people of our Territory, I extend our deepest gratitude to Mr. Avamua Asi-Galumalemana David O. Haleck, Haleck Enterprises, Tradewinds Hotel, and the entire Haleck family for their exceptional generosity in donating a fire truck to the Department of Search and Rescue.

For generations, the Haleck family has exemplified service, leadership, and compassion throughout American Samoa. Their unwavering dedication to the welfare of our community reflects the highest values of generosity and humility that define our people. This remarkable contribution will significantly enhance our emergency response capabilities and our capacity to protect and serve our citizens in times of need.

This generous gift stands as a powerful testament to the spirit of giving and community solidarity that strengthens American Samoa. The Haleck family's continued support serves as an inspiring example for others to follow, demonstrating the profound impact that comes from investing in the safety and well-being of our people.

Fa'afetai tele lava for your dedicated support and enduring love for our people. May God continue to bless you, your family, and your enterprises abundantly.
