Governor Lemanu Orders Flags at Half Staff for Victims of Uvalde, Texas School Shooting.

“Let us take a moment to be grateful for the Lord’s continued protection and blessings on our Territory.”

On Wednesday 25, 2022, Governor Lemanu ordered the flying of flags at half-staff to honor the victims of the attack at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas. As a result of the “senseless acts of violence perpetrated on May 24, 2022,” the general memorandum expires this honor to be flown at half-staff until sunset May 28, 2022.

Governor Lemanu stated, “As we reflect on the loss of life and the impact on the affected survivors, let us take a moment to be grateful for the Lord’s continued protection and blessings on our Territory.”
