[PICTORIAL]: Acting Governor Talauega E. V. Ale welcomed Director Robert Pesapane, FEMA Recovery Division Region IX upon his arrival on Monday, September 26, 2022, at the Tafuna International Airport. “Although I have to depart the territory tonight, I am honored to have gotten the opportunity to meet you in person, and I am excited for your presence here in American Samoa. I wish you and Director Lisa, and our local and federal partners all the best during the Summit,” stated Acting Governor Talauega.

Director Robert is on island to attend the 1st Annual Disaster Resilience Summit from September 27-29, hosted by Director Lisa Tuato’o and the Office of Disaster Assistance and Petroleum Management.

Other federal partners arrived during the previous week and were able to meet with the Acting Governor early Monday morning at the Governor’s Office conference room.
