

For Official Release
PR 002-09072022
Office of the Governor
Utulei, American Samoa
September 07, 2022

Constitutional Convention Leaders Present Revised Constitution

"I commend you all for your wisdom and foresight. This was no easy feat, however, because of your passion to serve our community, you did not waiver..."

Pictured (from left to right): Paramount Chief Mauga Tasi Asuega, 6th Constitutional Convention Ti'alemasunu Dr. Mikaele Etuale, Vice Chairman Faiivae Iuli A. Godinet, Chairman Tuaolo Manaia Fruean, Honorable Governor Lemanu Palepoi Sialega Mauga, and Honorable Lt. Governor Talauega Eleasalo Va'alele Ale.

[PICTORIAL]: On Wednesday, September 7, 2022, Chairman Tuaolo Fruean, along with his respective officers, officially presented the revised constitution, including amendments passed as a result of the 6th Constitutional Convention that was held on August 29th through September 2nd, to the Honorable Governor Lemanu Palepoi Sialega Mauga and Lieutenant Governor Talauega Eleasalo Va'alele Ale.

“I commend you all for your wisdom and foresight. This was no easy feat, however, because of your passion to serve our community, you did not waiver,” stated Governor Lemanu. He continued, “Now the real work begins. We shall work to inform and engage the public to raise awareness of the necessary changes to be made. It is our duty and responsibility to educate our people, but above all, to allow them the right to choose. Come November 8th, they will freely exercise that right.”

###